BRIEF : COMMENCEMENT OF ONLINE RECRUITMENT OF CIVILIANS IN ARMY ORDNANCE CORPS

- 1. Army Ordnance Corps employs a large number of civilians in its various units under various trade categories. The civilians are recruited on "All India Service Liability" basis through various examinations as stipulated by DoP&T (Government of India).
- 2. The recruitment process under three categories namely Tradesman Mate (TMM), Fireman (FM) and Material Assistant (MA) will commence shortly after publication of the advertisement in the "Employment News/Rozgar Samachar". Candidates will have to submit applications online, the details of which and other details will be available on www.aocrecruitment.gov.in.
- 3. The entire recruitment procedure will be unbiased, fair and transparent. Candidates are therefore advised to avoid falling prey to Touts/Middlemen.
